

Information Advice & Guidance Services

Main Principles and Aims

All learners have access to free and impartial information and guidance at the following stages of their learning with GPSTL.

1

Pre programme

2

On start of programme

3

On programme support

4

On exit

The main principles of GPSTL's information and guidance include the following:

- Offering options to enable learners to raise their aspirations
- Ensuring the individual needs of learners are met
- Listening to clients
- Working with other agencies in order to offer a total support service throughout
- Extending opportunity and equality of opportunity
- Reviewing and evaluating service standards

For more information, visit our website:

<https://www.gpstl-apprenticeships.co.uk/> or visit the Learning Hub at <https://lms.gpsta.co.uk/>